CROP WALK – SEPTEMBER 2020

The CROP Walk is a fundraiser for Church World Service to fight hunger locally and around the world. Due to the pandemic, 2020 CROP Walks are "Virtual" walks. What does that mean? Safety, Choice, and New Skills!

Walks will be done individually or in small groups that feel safe together. Walks can be done on the route of your choice anytime the week of Sept 20-27, 2020. We'll learn new skills as we emphasize social media sharing and fundraising. Check out our team page at :

www.crophungerwalk.org/waynesborova/MSUMC to either join the team or donate. Donors who don't feel comfortable donating online, can mail checks to support the team to the church office with CROP in the memo line (make the check payable to MSUMC).

We're all tired of being cooped up inside! Let's get out and walk for a great cause! The local Waynesboro/East Augusta Walk has picked a theme of "Gratitude and Grace" for this year's Walk. As you prepare to walk or donate, please reflect on all the blessings in your life and on ways to share God's grace with others. Contact Janice Gentry (jsgafton@yahoo.com, 540-932-2076) if you have any questions.
